Every writer has a story. Some are deadlier than others. Aspiring author Graye Templeton will do anything to escape the horrific childhood crime that haunts her. After a life lived in shadows, she's accepted a new job as protégé to Laura West, influential book blogger and wife of an acclaimed novelist. Laura's connections could make Graye's publishing dreams a reality. But there's more to Laura than meets the eye. Behind the veneer of a charmed life, Laura's marriage is collapsing. Her once-lauded husband is descending into alcoholism and ruin and bringing Laura nearer to the edge. As the two women form a bond that seems meant to be, long-buried secrets claw their way into the present, and the line between friendship and obsession begins to blur, forcing each to decide where her loyalties lie. Running from the past is a dangerous game, and the loser could end up dead.

The Shadow Writer

Nice guys finish last. Words I live by. In my world, it pays to be the bad guy...and I'm very good at being bad. I have a thriving business built on blood, sweat and tears—literally. Underground fights are my bread and butter, and no one interferes with that if they know what's good for them. Not even some expensive-looking blonde, with blue eyes and a mouth that doesn't know when to stop. Babysitting Lela Morgan starts out as a favour to a "friend," but the longer I'm forced to look out for her, the harder it is to keep my hands to myself. And the more I want her, the crueller my words become. Because if there's one thing in my dangerous world I cannot afford, it's going soft. For the first time in my life, I'm close to losing control. The harder I push her away, the harder she pushes my buttons. But she's tougher than she looks, and she's not going down without a fight. Could it be that enemies make the best lovers?
